

Going to church with children can be a challenge....

Let's simplify things.

Our beautiful stone Chapel, quiet interior, and contemplative worship service is lovely to catch a little bit of serenity in the midst of our frenzied lives. But when you are juggling small children let's face it... the frenzy comes with you! We love having children in church but we know for busy, tired parents its not always easy.

And kids aren't really looking to find God in quiet, but in play! In music, story, activity, and freedom.

Young Marylin Odhner and Rev. Sage

Beginning Sunday, December 8th 2019

11:00 am @ Swedenborg Chapel, 50 Quincy St. Cambridge, MA

We will begin holding a Children's Sunday on the Second Sunday of each month.

What to expect on a Children's Sunday?

- We will gather together in the sanctuary for the opening of worship with children friendly music, prayer and a children's message.
- Children will be excused to enjoy activity time and Sunday School lessons in a multi-age classroom with an adult leader and helper. Parents are welcome to stay with their children or to return for the scripture and sermon time.
- Children and adults will gather back together for food, fellowship and sharing time after worship.

If you are looking for a church connection for yourselves and your children consider joining us! This first Children's Sunday will focus on the themes of Advent and spiritual preparations for Christmas. For more information you can visit our website at www.swedenborgchapel.org or contact Rev. Sage at sage@swedenborgchapel.org.
